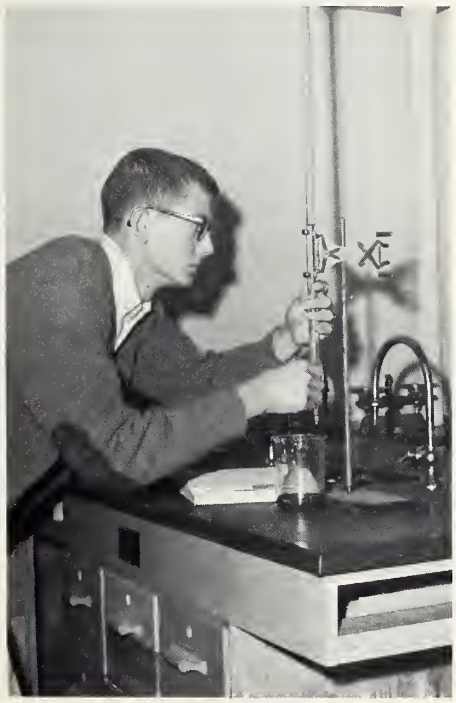
DEDICATION

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weddle

We, the Senior Class, wish to dedicate the 1964 Maple Trail to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weddle who have broadened the horizons of our college and who are dedicating themselves untiringly to this end--that this college should rise in the eyes of the world and long remain an institution which will stand in God's light and excel in God's will.

WE BUILD OUR SPIRITUAL LIFE



WE BUILD OUR INTELLECTUAL LIFE

WE BUILD OUR SOCIAL LIFE

WE BUILD OUR PHYSICAL LIFE

PRESIDENT AND FAMILY

Dr. Carter, Mrs. Carter
Jill, John, Jenny

Campbellsville College continues to seek diligently to expand in meeting the needs of this large central Kentucky area. Each year the college has become more indispensable, becoming part of the very "warp and woof" of Kentucky Baptist work and education. The places of eminence granted to Campbellsville College graduates attests to the quality of its work on an educational level. The unusually large number of graduates serving in their churches is evidence of the tremendous returns to those who support our college.

Our present position, rather than causing us pride, makes us humbly grateful to God for the tremendous task placed on us in this great Kentucky area.

Dr. John M. Carter

MAPLE TRAIL EDITOR

Christine Yantz

It has been a great honor for me to serve as editor of the MAPLE TRAIL, 1964 edition. The theme of our yearbook this year is "We Build." The staff and I have worked hard to try to carry out this theme and to build a better yearbook. I hope that when you look back through this yearbook you will be able to feel proud of our yearbook as well as proud of being a student of Campbellsville College.

Love makes the world go round.

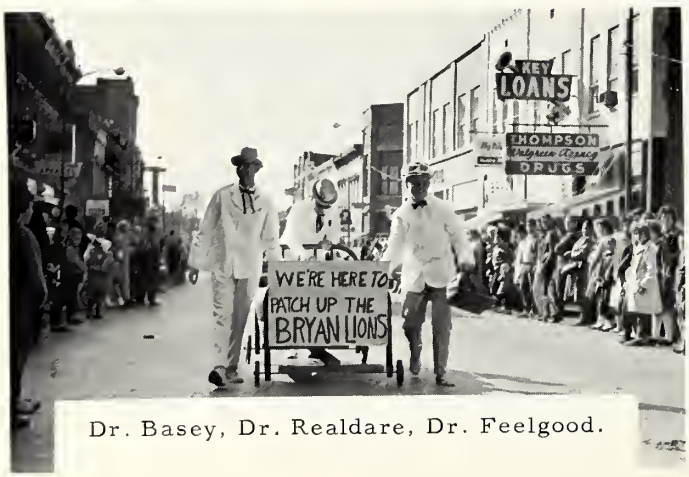
Hold that pose, ladies!

Now do you think they were really studying? ? ?

All I wanted was a biscuit!

Did you ever feel left out?

Are you sure this is the only seat available?



Dr. Basey, Dr. Realdare, Dr. Feelgood.

How can a man study in all this confusion?

That's all right. I'll clean it up.

The sixty-four thousand dollar question--What's in the water tonight?

They won't fall for that line, Sue!

Now I was here first.

Whew! It's finally finished!

Dear LeEtta:

I can't tell you how much of a pleasure it was to judge your pretty contestants.

It was a difficult decision to make as I'd really like to call each girl a winner. However, I was finally able to choose a "Miss Maple Trail" and the winner is enclosed in the marked envelope.

I'd like to congratulate all of the candidates and wish them all the luck and success in the future. Warmest wishes to you and the entire Campbellsville College staff.

Sincerely,

A MEMORIAL TRIBUTE TO JFK

We observe today not a victory of party but a celebration of freedom.

Man holds in his mortal hands the power to abolish all form of human poverty and to abolish all form of human life.

The rights of man come not from the generosity of the state but from the hands of God.

The torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans . . . unwilling to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which this nation has always been committed.

We shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend or oppose any foe in order to assure the survival and success of liberty.

To those old allies whose cultural and spiritual origins we share, we pledge the loyalty of faithful friends.

To those new states whom we now welcome to the ranks of the free, we pledge our word that one form of colonial control shall not have passed merely to be replaced by a far more iron tyranny.

To those peoples in the huts and villages of half the globe struggling to break the bonds of mass misery, we pledge our best efforts to help them help themselves.

To our sister republics south of our border, we offer a special pledge--to convert our good words into good deeds--in a new alliance for progress . . . We shall join with them to oppose aggression or subversion anywhere in the Americas.

To that world assembly or sovereign states, the United Nations . . . We renew our pledge of support.

To those nations who would make themselves our adversary, we offer not a pledge but a request! That both sides begin anew the quest for peace.

Let us begin anew--remembering on both sides that civility is not a sign of weakness, and sincerity is always subject to proof.

Let both sides, for the first time, formulate serious and precise proposals for the inspection and control of arms--and bring the absolute power to destroy other nations under the absolute control of all nations.

And if a beachhead of co-operation can be made in the jungles of suspicion, let both sides join in the next task: creating, not a new balance of power, but a new world of law, where the strong are just and the weak secure and the peace preserved forever.

Only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not shrink from this responsibility--I welcome it.

My fellow Americans: Ask not what your country will do for you--ask what you can do for your country.
My fellow citizens of the world: Ask not what America will do for you, but what together we can do for the freedom of man.

These are the declarations and appeals that highlighted the prepared text of President John F. Kennedy's inaugural address
January 20, 1961.

WE BUILD
A GREAT REPUBLIC
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

To each is given a bag of tools,
A shapeless mass and a book of rules
And each must fashion, 'ere life is flown,
A stumbling block or a stepping stone.
